

Press Release

24th of February 2016

New CEO at TripleNine Group A/S

The Board of Directors of TripleNine Group, Esbjerg, has appointed Jes Bjerregaard new group CEO.

Jes Bjerregaard is 57 years old and was previously Managing Director of Danpo A/S, which is part of Scandi Standard, Scandinavia's largest poultry group.

Harald Røkenes, Chairman of the Board, says that he is happy to welcome Jes Bjerregaard to TripleNine Group. Jes Bjerregaard has sound management experience from industrial companies and has - with excellent results - been in charge of development and growth. I am sure that with the support of all the competent employees in the Group, he will make a difference and create value for our customers, employees and shareholders.

Jes Bjerregaard comments on his appointment as follows: "During recent years, TripleNine Group has created a strong international platform based on sustainable proteins. I look forward to heading the group and to solving the exciting task in cooperation with the many competent employees".

Jes Bjerregaard will take up his new position on 1 June 2016, at the latest.

Contact:

Harald Røkenes: +47 91819851 harald@pelagic.no

TripleNine Group – an internationally leading manufacturer of fishmeal and fish oil. TripleNine Group has its main office in Esbjerg, Denmark with production plants in Denmark (Thyborøn), Norway (Vedde) and Chile (Lota). Furthermore, the group has activities in Africa and Asia. The Group has a turnover of DKK 1.7 bn and has 270 employees.